Multicultural Nelson Tasman invites you to attend:

Intercultural Awareness and Communication Workshop in Richmond

Facilitated by Denise Hartley-Wilkins (Trained by the Office of Ethnic Communities)

- WHEN: Thursday March 28th 2019
8:45am – 4:30pm (morning tea included, please bring your own lunch)
- WHERE: Constance Barnicoat Room. Richmond Library
- COST: $25 (payable to Multicultural Nelson Tasman – 03-1355-0590251-00) after confirmation.
- WHY: Nelson is one of the top three most ethnically diverse cities in New Zealand. Multicultural Nelson Tasman is offering residents and businesses in the Richmond area a rare opportunity to enhance and develop your skills in cross-cultural interaction and communication.

After completing this training you will:

- Clearly understand the concepts and dimensions involved in intercultural communication.
- Identify and value the relationship between effective intercultural communication and effective workplace interaction.
- Identify and develop strategies for more effective communication across cultural boundaries.

The first 15 applicants will be accepted as numbers are limited. Please reply promptly to secure your place.

Register by: Thursday 21st March 2019
